Fact Sheet 2016-2017

Huckleberry Community Assessment & Resource Center (CARC)

Huckleberry's mission is to educate, inspire, and support under served youth to develop healthy life choices, to maximize their potential, and to realize their dreams. The Community Assessment & Referral Center (CARC) is a Case Management program initially designed to assist youth who have been arrested in the County of San Francisco, in recent years we have opened up our criteria for participants to include youth who are not involved in the Juvenile Justice System. The youth we serve are ages 11-17.

Time Commitment
